TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Saturday 8th April 2017

St John's School Leatherhead

March 2017 is a singular month for the Society . It represents the twentieth anniversary of our very first lecture in March 1997. So on April 8th, we're celebrating with a special lecture and lunch at St John's School Leatherhead. For the lecture, which will be given in St John's Performing Arts Centre, we have secured Bertie Pearce who so amused and bemused us with his lecture on history of Magic two years or so ago. We also sponsored his memorable lecture on Charles Dickens at the Leatherhead Theatre which opened the MV Heritage Days programme last year. This time his lecture will be on the story of Punch and Judy – a lecture which has received excellent reviews from NADFAS audiences around the country. This will be followed by a splendid three course lunch including wine and coffee/tea in the magnificent dining hall of St John's.
